DALLINGTON PARISH COUNCIL

- (ii) your personal interests which are also disclosable pecuniary interests where they fall within a category mentioned in paragraph 8.5 by providing written notification to your authority's monitoring officer.
- 13.2 Subject to paragraph 14, you must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new personal interest falling within sub-paragraphs 1(i) or 1(ii) or any change to any personal interest registered under sub-paragraphs 13.1(i) or 13(1)(ii), register details of that new personal interest or change by providing written notification to your authority's monitoring officer.
14. SENSITIVE INFORMATION
- 14.1 Where you consider that the information relating to any of your personal interests is sensitive information, and your authority's monitoring officer agrees, the monitoring officer shall not include details of the interest on any copies of the register of members' interests which are made available for inspection or any published version of the register, but may include a statement that you have an interest, the details of which are withheld under this paragraph.
- 14.2 You must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any change of circumstances which means that information excluded under paragraph 13.1(1) is no longer sensitive information, notify your authority's monitoring officer asking that the information be included in the register of members' interests.

15. DISPENSATIONS
- 15.1 On a written request made to the Council's proper officer, the proper officer, or if he/she decides, the Council, may grant a member a dispensation to participate in a discussion or vote on a matter at a meeting or for a set period of time up to four years, even if he/she has an interest. The proper officer/Council should believe that the number of members otherwise prohibited from taking part in the meeting would impede the transaction of the business, or it is in the interests of the inhabitants in the Council's area to allow the member(s) to take part or it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.
16. PREDISPOSITION, BIAS AND PREDETERMINATION
- 16.1 It is not a problem for councillors to be predisposed. Predisposition is where a councillor holds a view in favour of or against an issue, for example any application for planning permission, but they have an open mind to the merits of the argument before they make the final decision at the council meeting.
- 16.2 Bias or predetermination can lead to problems. It is where a councillor is closed to the merits of any arguments relating to a particular issue, such as an application for planning permission, and makes a decision on the issue without taking them into account. Councillors must not even appear to have already decided how they will vote at a meeting, so that nothing will change their minds.
- 16.3 In summary, councillors are entitled to have and express their own views, as long as they are prepared to reconsider their positions in the light of evidence and arguments. They must not give the impression that their minds are closed.

The 7 Principles of Public Life

Selflessness

1. Members should serve only the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person.

Integrity

2. Members should not place themselves in situations where their integrity may be questioned, should not behave improperly and should on all occasions avoid the appearance of such behaviour. Members should show integrity by consistently treating other people with respect, regardless of their race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation, disability or position, for example as an officer or employee of the authority.

Objectivity

3. Members should make decisions in accordance with the law and on merit, including when making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits.

Accountability

4. Members should be accountable to the public for their actions and the manner in which they carry out their responsibilities, and should co-operate fully and honestly with any scrutiny appropriate to their particular office.

Openness

5. Members should be as open as possible about their actions and those of their authority, and should be prepared to give reasons for those actions.

Honesty

6. Members should not place themselves in situations where their honesty may be questioned, should not behave dishonestly and should on all occasions avoid the appearance of such behaviour. Members should declare any private interests relating to their public duties and take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects that public interest.

Leadership

7. Members should promote and support these principles by leadership, and by example, and should act in a way that secures or preserves public confidence.
